FORWORD

THESE INSCRIPTIONS were copied over a period of 23 years. Those of Fennville taken in 1932 by Clois Hutchins Duell represented the first work of this kind done in Allegan County. She also copied Oak Grove in Clyde Township and in June 1940, assisted by Ruth Robbins Monteith, copied the Hutchins and Manlius-New Richmond. Lindsley and Lindian were copied in Oct. 1940 by Nelle Bailey Lonsbury, Cornelia C. Peck and Mrs. Monteith. Mrs. Lonsbury also visited the Section 6 in Valley Twp. In 1940 Mrs. Elizabeth B. Davis took some of the inscriptions in the Taylor Cemetery in Ganges and in 1941 & 1950 Miss Peck and Mrs. Monteith completed it. Hazel Huitt and Mrs. Monteith copied Loomis in 1955. The others were copied at various times by Miss Peck and Mrs. Monteith. Death Records of Allegan County were consulted in an effort to complete the record where no death date or name was given.

INDIAN CEMETERY, CHESHIRE TWP., ALLEGAN CO., MICHIGAN

This old burying ground is now so neglected and overgrown with sassafras bushes that it is not easily recognized. There were but two stones that we could find, both of them being down and almost covered with debris. It is located in Section 20. It is not known whether the persons whose graves are marked were Indians or not. Examination of the Allegan Co. Death Records was made but the color of the one recorded was not given.

Allegan County, Michigan, Land Deeds - Liber 25 p.612

SECTION 6 CEMETERY, VALLEY TWP., ALLEGAN CO., MICHIGAN

This old cemetery on Section 6 has been abandoned for many years. History of Allegan & Barry Counties (1880) page 314 says of it "The second cemetery was laid out near the west township line of Section 6. It is comparatively new and as yet but few interments have taken place within its borders!" Mr. Fred Kingsley of Allegan, Mich. R.R. 3 who is the sexton of the other Valley Twp. burial ground - Millgrove Cemetery wrote June 25, 1940 of the old graveyard on Section 6, "that it is not used any more, and that as late as 1872 there was an Indian settlement near the cemetery. Some Indians as well as white people were buried there. He thought there were three monuments there now. His father George Kingsley was born near that cemetery in 1858, he is still living aged 82 years."

Mrs. H.E. Lonsbury, regent of Hannah McIntosh Cady Chapter D.A.R., Allegan, Mich. visited this old burying ground in October 1940 & It was all overgrown with briars and underbrush. She found only two stones as given below. It is about 3 miles N of Round Lake across the road from a school house.

MCCORMICK or FENNVILLE CEMETERY, MANLIUS TWP., ALLEGAN CO.

JAMES MCCORMICK came to Manlius in 1838 settling on Section 31. At first this was a private cemetery but was later taken over by the town board and is now known as FENNVILLE Cemetery. Inscriptions were copied in July 1932 by Clois Hutchins Duell (Mrs. Warren L) of Fennville, and were arranged alphabetically and typed by Mrs. John Everett of Kalamazoo, who was at that time the Vital Records Chairman of the Michigan D.A.R. In some cases the surnames of parents were not given so the Death Records in the Allegan office of the County Clerk were examined to determine the names and other data. These facts are shown as (dr--)

MANLIUS & NEW RICHMOND CEMETERY, MANLIUS TWP., ALLEGAN CO., MICH. 1

This cemetery is used commonly by the people of New Richmond and Manlius. History of Allegan & Barry Counties, Mich. page 266 says "Susan L. daughter of Ralph A. Mann was the first person to die in the township, the date of her death being Jan. 1, 1837. She was buried in the woods on the hill back of the then village of Richmond but was subsequently removed to the cemetery near Manlius. Near where she was first buried was also interred the body of a German killed by the fall of a tree, and there his bones still rest." The stone of earliest date is that of "Elizabeth Lamoreux died April 6, 1836 ac 28y 3m 3d." Inscriptions grouped together are from stones on the same plot.

HUTCHINS CEMETERY, GANGES TOWNSHIP, ALLEGAN CO., MICHIGAN 1

The Hutchins Cemetery is in Section 1, Ganges Twp., on the old Harrison Hutchins farm. The first burial was that of Russell Hall, a brother-in-law of Harrison Hutchins, who died in 1840 at Mr. Hutchins' home and was buried in this plot. For some years this was the only burying ground in the township. It is on M89 about 1½ miles west of Fenville. (Allegan and Barry County History page 211). Inscriptions grouped together are from graves on the same plot.

TAYLOR CEMETERY, GANGES TOWNSHIP, ALLEGAN CO., MICHIGAN

TAYLOR Cemetery is on Section 4, Ganges Twp. on the east side of highway US-31 about 1 mile north of the Ganges store. It is a well kept old graveyard. Some inscriptions were copied in 1940 by Elizabeth B. Davis. These were checked and others copied in Sept. 1941 by Cornelia C Peck and Ruth Robbins Monteith who again visited it in June 1950 and completed the work. Double spacing separates lots. Brackets) indicate that the inscriptions were on one stone. um means undertakers' marker.

PLUMMERVILLE CEMETERY, GANGES TOWNSHIP, ALLEGAN CO., MICHIGAN

The first settler in this vicinity was Benjamin PLUMMER, whose second son, Andrew, was the first white child born in Saugatuck. Three of their other children died in the spring of 1853 of cholera. This cemetery is one mile west and a little north of US highway 31 on Section 7. It is quite well kept. There are many unmarked graves. Copying was done in the summer of 1940 by Elizabeth B. Davis and finished in Sept. 1941 by Cornelia Peck & Ruth Robbins Monteith, who typed & checked the record. Lots separated by double spacing.

117 YEAR OLD GRAVESTONE FOUND IN ALLEGAN

(The Allegan News, May 3, 1951 by NANCY HOTOP)

"An unrecorded bit of Allegan history may have come to light last week with the finding of a 117 year old gravestone.

Perfectly preserved, the slab was uncovered by LARRY WALCAND and his son LARRY, Jr. as they were clearing stones in one of their farm fields. It was found in the foundation of an early schoolhouse deeded to the county by BRANDON S. PROUTY, one of Allegan's first settlers, and the WALCANDS plan to dig further in the pile of stones. "Just to see what else might pop up, when we get time," Larry, Sr. explained.

The WALCAND farm land is located on the county road branching off Ely street at the curve just southwest of town, past the STUBBINS farm.

The inscription is "In Memory of ELISHA L WILLIAMS of the city of Rochester, N.Y. Who was drowned in the Kalamazoo River Dec. 17, 1834 aged 35 years, 5 months & 5 days. Be ye also ready"

The script is very legible and only the 'B' in the last line is broken off.

Scanning the early history of Allegan for record of this mishap no mention of his name was found.-----

At first it was believed that ELISHA WILLIAMS might have been an uncle of WILLIAM B. WILLIAMS who was Allegan's first Judge of Probate from 1856 - 1866. His mother and father were ERASTUS & ELIZABETH LUMLEY WILLIAMS, descendants of earliest Massachusetts settlers, who lived in Rochester, N.Y. in the same period. Checking the genealogy of the WILLIAMS' family back to the 1600s revealed there was no ELISHA among family names. However GEORGE UPDYKE, grandson of WILLIAM B. WILLIAMS, said there was a remote possibility that the man could have been a cousin or uncle of his grandfather."

Lakeview Cemetery, Hopkins Twp., Allegan Co., Mich.

LAKEVIEW CEMETERY is on Section 17 $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles north of Hopkins village. It was formerly the German Methodist church yard but the church was moved into town. The inscriptions were copied in 1937 by Edward Harvey Mohnke of Grand Rapids, Mich. for the Mormon church in Salt Lake City. He gave me permission to copy the inscriptions from the record which he gave to the State Library in Lansing. He arranged them by families.

OAKWOOD CEMETERY, ALLEGAN MICHIGAN

Early in the history of Allegan ALEXANDER L. ELY gave to the village 1½ A. of land on the N½ of the SW¼ of Sec. 29 as a burial place, stipulating that a lot be reserved for the interments of his family. In 1873 6 A. adjoining were bought from W. B. WILLIAMS. More land has since been purchased.

On August 3, 1924 the Arbor Street entrance to the cemetery was dedicated with appropriate services. This brick entrance was the gift to the city of the Hannah McIntosh Cady, Daughters of the American Revolution, the Chapter in Allegan. The members had earned the money over a period of years by giving cotillions, holding rummage sales etc.

Copying was begun to the right of the D. A. R. entrance. Since a family plot often over two rows those inscriptions were copied together and the rows not indicated. This section extends to Western Avenue. Records kept since 1878.

MILLGROVE Cemetery is on Section 12 in Valley Twp. a short distance from M-40. It was opened about 1848. It is not well cared for - vines cover stones and shrubs are so high they completely cover some small stones. Inscriptions copied by Milo & Leona (Sithes) Farnsworth and Ruth Robbins Monteith on Sept. 22, 1956. Inscriptions on some stones were almost gone. Copying was begun at the back of the right hand side of gate
